4. Participating States

Participating States are defined in rule 1 of the draft rules of procedure (CTBT-Art.XIV/2013/1) as encompassing both ratifying States and signatory States that have not yet ratified the Treaty. This rule stipulates that “[e]ach State that has already deposited its instrument of ratification of the Treaty before the opening of the Conference (hereinafter ‘ratifier’) may participate in and be represented at the Conference convened pursuant to paragraph 3 of Article XIV of the Treaty”, while “[e]ach State Signatory, which has not yet deposited its instrument of ratification of the Treaty before the opening of the Conference (hereinafter ‘signatory’), may attend the Conference in accordance with paragraph 4 of Article XIV of the Treaty”.

5. Composition of delegations of participating States

In accordance with rule 2 of the draft rules of procedure, the delegation of a participating State shall consist of a head of delegation and such other alternates and advisers as may be required. The head of delegation may designate an alternate or adviser to act in his or her place. The composition of delegations is to be communicated to the Secretariat (see sub-paragraph 3.1 above and paragraph 7 below) by Permanent Missions or by Ministries of Foreign Affairs of participating States.

6. Credentials of representatives of ratifying States

In accordance with rule 3 of the draft rules of procedure, the credentials of representatives of ratifiers and the names of their alternate representatives and advisers should be submitted to the Secretariat of the Conference. These credentials should be issued by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs. The credentials should be submitted to the Secretariat of the Conference (see sub-paragraph 3.1 above) as soon as possible but not later than Friday, 6 September 2013.

7. Notification of Delegations/List of Participants

A list of participants will be prepared for the Conference on the basis of notifications received containing the names and titles of delegates (heads, alternates, advisers) submitted by Permanent Missions or Ministries of Foreign Affairs of participating States, and of the credentials of ratifiers, as well as those submitted by specialized agencies, related organizations, intergovernmental organizations (IGOs) or entities. To facilitate preparation of the list of participants, electronic copies of the list of representatives in Word format are kindly requested. These written notifications and their electronic copies should be provided to the Secretariat of the Conference, Mr. Hong Tan, tel.: (212) 963-7062, fax: (917) 367-1767, e-mail: tan1@un.org, as soon as possible but not later than Friday, 13 September 2013.

8. List of Speakers

8.1 The list of speakers for the general exchange of views by ratifiers and signatories on facilitating the entry into force of the CTBT will be opened on Friday, 6 September 2013. Delegations wishing to inscribe their names on the list of speakers are requested to contact the Secretariat of the Conference, Mr. Hong Tan, tel.: (212) 963-7062, or by fax (212) 367-1767. Delegations are asked to kindly indicate the level of representation when inscribing on the list of speakers.

8.2 As general guidance, given the short time available and the large number of participants from ratifying States and signatory States expected to take part in the debate, it is assumed that speakers – at the discretion of the Presidency of the Conference – will speak for no more than five minutes each.

8.3 Participants wishing to distribute copies of their official statements are requested to provide 300 copies for distribution in the conference room. The United Nations Secretariat does not provide photocopying services.

9. Other States, Specialized Agencies, Related Organizations, Intergovernmental Organizations and Entities

9.1 Pursuant to rule 40 of the draft rules of procedure, any State which, in accordance with Article XIV of the Treaty, has the right to sign the Treaty, but has not yet done so, may attend the Conference. Representatives of these States shall be entitled to attend open meetings of the Conference, to address the Conference under the agenda item allocated for this purpose (item 9 of the draft provisional agenda, CTBT-Art.XIV/2013/2), to receive the documents of the Conference and to submit written contributions on matters under consideration by the Conference. Letters designating representatives to attend, as well as expressing interest to address the Conference should be communicated to the Secretariat of the Conference (see sub-paragraph 3.1 and paragraphs 5 and 7 above).

9.2 Pursuant to rule 41 of the draft rules of procedure, any specialized agency, related organization or IGO having received a standing invitation to participate as an observer in the sessions and the work of the United Nations General Assembly may apply to the Secretariat of the Conference to attend the Conference (see sub-paragraph 3.1 above). Permission to attend will be extended on the decision of the Conference. Such a specialized agency, related organization or intergovernmental organization shall be entitled to attend open meetings of the Conference, to receive the documents of the Conference and to submit written contributions on matters under consideration by the Conference. Letters designating representatives should be addressed to the Secretariat of the Conference (see sub-paragraph 3 and paragraphs 7 above).

- 9.3 Pursuant to rule 42 of the draft rules of procedure, any entity having received a standing invitation to participate as an observer in the sessions and the work of the United Nations General Assembly and maintaining permanent observer missions or permanent offices at United Nations Headquarters may apply to the Secretariat of the Conference to attend the Conference (see sub-paragraph 3.1 above). Permission to attend will be granted on the decision of the Conference. Such an entity shall be entitled to attend open meetings of the Conference, to receive the documents of the Conference and to submit written contributions on matters under consideration by the Conference. Letters designating representatives should be addressed to the Secretariat of the Conference (see paragraph 3.1 and paragraph 7 above).

10. Registration of Delegations and Identification Badges

- 10.1 Security regulations of the United Nations in force require that each and every participant in the Conference be registered and have a valid grounds pass plus a colour-coded access card (see paragraph 10.4 below) that will be required in order to access the United Nations Headquarters building and the relevant conference rooms.
- 10.2 Reference is made to the accreditation of members of delegations who are not already accredited to the United Nations in New York. Participating States and other States, specialized agencies, related organizations, IGOs and entities, including those without an office in New York, which are attending the Conference should submit their requests for identification badges online at <https://eaccreditation.un.int> not later than Friday, 13 September 2013. Information regarding the electronic accreditation procedure can be found on <http://www.un.int/protocol>. In order to gain access to the United Nations Headquarters, those delegates will be required to go to the United Nations Pass and Identification Unit (located in the UNITAR Building, East 45th Street and 1st Avenue, ground floor, tel.: 212-963-7533) with a printed copy of their approval notification together with a government ID or passport for their photo identification badges to be issued.

- 10.3 Any updates on security procedures related to access to the United Nations Headquarters in New York will be posted on the website of the United Nations Office of Disarmament Affairs (<http://www.un.org/disarmament>). Information on security arrangements for access to the Vienna International Centre during the informal consultative process for preparation of the Conference can be received from the Provisional Technical Secretariat of the CTBTO Preparatory Commission (see sub-paragraph 3.2 above).
- 10.4 Colour-coded access cards will be ready for collection at the UN Protocol and Liaison Service (Room S-0201) starting on Friday, 20 September 2013.

11. Media Representatives

Media representatives wishing to cover the Conference that are not already accredited to the United Nations in New York must apply for media accreditation through an electronic application system, the details of which can be found at <http://www.un.org/en/media/accreditation>.
